Remembering

When I was just A LITTLE LAD and time was not so rare I'd find a place where I could hide and take my treasures there And I would do such wondrous things As I lived through-out those early Springs But then I grew And now I'm not that youth-ful lad with dreams he could-n't hold And I can't find a place to hide it's bit-ter bit-ter cold But ev-en though the Win-ter's here There's a warmth I feel when you are near And I need you I will al-ways need you Has-ten love to speed your hand to me
